

Biblical Proofs for the Deity of Christ

John was not alone in his declarations that Jesus Christ was God incarnate. Both the Old and New Testaments contain so many witnesses to the deity of Christ that it makes it virtually impossible to read the scriptures and miss this important truth. The following is a chart that organizes and tracks the biblical references to the deity of Christ. It is certainly not exhaustive but is ample enough to back any arguments for the deity of Christ. Theophanies (or Christophanies)

It is upon this declaration the theologians have gone back to the Old Testament to search for appearances of the pre-incarnate Jesus. They are scattered throughout the Old Testament. Jesus said, "No man has seen God at anytime, but the son declares or reveals Him. (John 1:15) This agrees with Jewish theology that no man has seen God and lived. It also agrees with many other New Testament passages. (Hebrews 1:3, 1 Timothy 3:16, John 1:1-3) These pre-incarnate appearances of Jesus before his birth are known as "Theophanies" or "Christophanies."

They are not angelic appearances but special manifestations of God in human form - a God appearance, a Theophany. Micah 5:2 "But you Bethlehem Ephrata, though you are little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of you shall come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose going forth have been from old, from everlasting."

1 Timothy 3:16 And without controversy great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

John 1:1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

(ie) Brazilian expression "Dar a luz" – give light.

John 1:9 That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.

1 Timothy 6:15 Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, (dunastes) the King of kings, and Lord of lords;
